

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

THURSDAY EVE, SEPT. 27, 1883

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To Whom Address All Communications

Now baby Edith begs us say,
As strange as it may seem,
That two-forty she of hers
Declines to be her team.
A thousand dollars, so he says,
By any man laid down,
Wouldn't pay for hauling once
That carriage through the town.

The days and nights are now of equal length.

Mr. Geo. Crowell has added a handsome veranda to his East Maysville residence.

Rev. F. J. Crisp, of Carrollton, Ky., will preach at the Baptist Church this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Maysville needs a city engineer. There is plenty of work for such an officer to do. We suggest the creation of the office.

The Yeoman says the new opera house now being erected in Frankfort will be the handsomest in the State when completed.

OYSTERS were never better in flavor than they are now. To know where to get the best consult the advertising columns of this paper.

CHAS. CONNORS escaped from the city rock pile yesterday morning, but was captured soon after on the Hills City turnpike by Marshal Redmond.

The rag carpet to which a first premium was awarded at the late fair, was the work of Mrs. Sarah Dawson, of East Maysville, a lady over sixty years of age.

THREE-CENT car tickets for the use of children under fifteen years of age can be had by applying at the company's office, on Court street. Thirty-five will be sold for one dollar.

A PIC-NIC at the fair grounds to be attended by some of the most distinguished men of the country, is talked of as one of the attractions for next season. The idea is not a bad one and might be profitably carried out.

MESSRS. J. M. FRAZER & Co. are obliged to keep a whip hanging at the front door of their grain house, and to use it constantly to keep out the city hogs. Their loss by the depredations of these protected pets amounts to considerable money in the course of a year. No other city in the United States would permit such things.

MAYSVILLE is well prepared to open the fall trade. Stocks have been replenished in all lines and we are safe in saying our merchants were never in the history of the city better able to supply the country trade. Our friends in the country are urgently invited to come and see us, with the assurance that they will be more than satisfied with the inducements Maysville has to offer this season.

Complimentary.

We notice from the Toronto, Canada, Daily Mail that Mark F. Kehoe, of this city, has been made Chairman of the committee on Ways and Means, of the International Cigar Makers' Union, now in session in that city, and is otherwise taking a conspicuous part in the deliberations of that body. It must be especially gratifying to the unions in this section, who did him the honor of an election, to know that he is not lacking of confidence even in the international body. He will return home this week.

Raffles.

The handsome case of pearl handle knives, forks and carving set generously contributed by Owens & Barkley to the premium list of the fair, was inadvertently printed in the official list as a cash premium, and it is therefore necessary to realize the money from it. To do this it has been left at Hechinger Bros. & Co.'s and will be raffled at $1 a chance.

A handsome silver water set and dairy cup is also on exhibition and will be raffled at the same price per chance, for the benefit of certain poor people of the city.

The twenty-ninth annual fair of the Union Agricultural Society of Mason and Bracken counties, will be held at the beautiful grounds near Germaniown, beginning October 10th and closing October 13th. This fair has held a prominent position among the leading fairs of the State for the past quarter of a century, and is acknowledged to be second to none. This year there is a larger premium list than usual, and many new attractions, among which are wheelbarrow races, foot races, bicycle races, a baby show, ladies', gentlemen's and misses' riding and driving matches. Carrier's celebrated Cincinnati band has been engaged for the week. To procure premium lists address J. A. Walton, Secretary, at Germantown.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Joseph Throop of Poplar Plains, is in Maysville to-day.

Mr. David Hechinger will leave in a few days on his semi-annual pilgrimage among the great clothing houses of the east. He promises some startling bargains in the latest styles of goods in his line on his return.

Liberal Rates.

To-morrow (Friday) is Kentucky Day at the Cincinnati Exposition. There will be a grand concert and a magnificent fruit and floral display and other features to render the day one of unusual attractiveness. To give everybody an opportunity to attend the Kentucky Central has generously arranged to sell round trip tickets from all points on the Maysville Division of the road for $2.25, which includes admission to the exposition. These tickets will be on sale September 28th, and will be good to return on a special train leaving Covington at 12 o'clock the same night or on any regular train on Saturday, September 29th.

The postmaster at New Orleans has notified the Postmaster General that he has been ordered by the State Court to deliver mail matter addressed to the Louisiana Lottery Company through the New Orleans National Bank, and asked for instructions as to what he should do. He was directed to obey the order until it should be reversed or modified, and to consult with the United States Attorney there. The latter official has been directed to take the necessary steps for the removal of the case from the State Court to the Federal Court, and to move at once for the dissolution of the injunction prohibiting the postmaster there from retaining lottery mail matter directed to the bank.

The heavy freight and passenger traffic over the Kentucky Central Railroad has steadily increased since the opening of the extension, until all available facilities are employed to secure prompt and satisfactory service. The road is in excellent condition, intelligent and thorough management, and with its Chesapeake & Ohio connections, it competes successfully with the trunk lines north of the Ohio for its share of the through trade and travel, while the extension brings it a large and valuable accession of Southern business. The accommodations liberally extended to the public in the way of extra trains, excursion rates, etc., on all important occasions, and the care and promptness with which all its business is transacted, have combined, with other admirable features of the present management, to make the K. C. one of the most deservedly popular roads in the country.

The office of the Deputy Revenue Collector will be closed to-morrow morning at eleven, and will not be open for business until Monday morning. This is necessary in order to allow Mr. Pfister time to prepare his regular monthly reports.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

Mr. David Cheesman, who has been a most efficient and popular clerk on the late W. P. Thompson, is visiting his parents this week. Mrs. Sarah Sones, of Locust Cottage, is entertaining one of her sisters of Escalopia. Mr. Alex. Ellis, late clerk with Mr. Palmer, a most energetic young man, is now engaged at Speer's tobacco warehouse. A well-known gentleman of this town is engaged in a large wholesale liquor house of Cincinnati. We wouldn't be surprised to hear of a marriage soon in the vicinity of "Idlewild."

One of the Best.

The Maysville DAILY BULLETIN has been enlarged to a six column paper, and is one of the best of our exchanges.

Candidate Foraker dined recently in an Ohio country town, where he was to make a speech that evening. "At the dinner," says the local paper, "Foraker cut the corn from his roasting ear instead of gnawing it from the cob. His constituency in this neck of woods can't stand any such aesthetic and gilt edged procedure."

A North Carolina girl had her hand completely severed from the arm by an ax. The physician, not being in a condition to amputate the arm above the wrist, replaced the hand and secured it with silver stitches and adhesive plaster, and, having bound both arm and hand to a board splint, ordered them to be kept warm with hot flannel cloth. The third day pulsation could be plainly felt in the hand, which had also changed its color. Says the physician in charge: "I removed the sutures on the fourteenth day, and afterward she carried the hand in a sling, and is now—three months after the accident—able to extend the fingers and grasp with nearly the usual strength."

The unluckiest man in Georgia lives in White county. In attempting to cross the river in a bateau it capsized and threw him into the water. Trying to reach the boat his foot caught in a snag and wrenched it, losing at the same time a $20 watch, his hat, a shoe and the boat. He finally reached the shore, and was hobbling across a field when a large, ferocious bull started for him. Reaching a tree he climbed it lively enough to escape the bull, but also lively enough to get into a hornet's nest. The hornets objected, and he sprang to another branch, which broke, letting him fall to the ground, fracturing his wrist. With the broken branch he kept the bull at bay and managed to escape. All this happened on a Friday.

Fashion Notes.

Dresses will be worn shorter this fall than usual.

Baskets of flowers have taken the place of bouquets for bridesmaids.

In spite of every effort to the contrary, hoops are bound to force themselves into favor again.

The long Russian circular, covering the wearer from throat to foot, is of large importations for midwinter.

Lace stockings are coming into vogue again for evening wear. Plain hose of bright colors will be worn underneath.

Patent leather shoes will be the style again this winter. There will be neither buttons or strings but elastic set in the sides, after the fashion of the "Congress gaiter" of years ago.

CITY ITEMS.

C. S. MINER & Bro's.

LEAF TOBACCO.

The market, under large offerings, was easier yesterday than it closed last week on all classes, from fancy cutting down to inferior trash. Like the previous week, the larger portion of the breaks consisted of good and medium grades, though there was enough fancy to satisfy all those who wanted it at still higher prices. Though the market lacked the spirit, and the activity was not shown as was last week, there was no change in quotations.

The offerings for the week to date are 673 hhds.

The average price for the 673 hhds, offered yesterday was $13 74 against $3 94 the same day last year.

Rev. Father Wilds' EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows:

"75 E. 54th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

MESSRS. J. C. AYER & Co., Gentlemen:

Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SARSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good.

Yours respectfully, Z. P. Wilds."

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to the
